

Please discontinue administering Element 1 "as soon as possible". The morse code requirement only serves as a barrier for potentially skilled youngsters and hobbyists to enter the amateur radio service. Eliminating this requirement will help to rejuvenate amateur radio - a viable and proven public service which is frequently lauded, particularly during and after times of emergency.